Contractor Express Opens New Design Expressions/ Marvin Design Gallery Showroom In Oceanside

Contractor Express has opened its new Marvin Design Gallery and home improvement products showroom at 389 Atlantic Avenue in Oceanside, NY. It is a destination showroom for premium windows and doors as well as building materials and home improvement products.

A grand opening celebration took place over two days that included a ribbon cutting ceremony, a contractor barbecue, and an event for the general public. Special guests, Kevin Boss, tight end for the New York Giants, and Jill Cordes, author and cable TV star from HGTV and the Food Network, were among those in attendance.

The new 4,000 square foot showroom, located adjacent to the original

Contractor Express, features Marvin Made-to-Order, Integrity® and Infinity® windows and doors as well as mouldings, decking and railings, roofing, siding, architectural hardware, stone veneer, and much more. Kitchens also play a prominent role in the design and layout of the new showroom that features fully accessorized displays and an outdoor kitchen.

Contractor Express' professional trade sales and service counter has been relocated and expanded to allow for faster service. There is also increased parking and easier access to product inventory. Contact 516-764-6600, or visit www.design-expressions.com.
